The Lewis Grand Hotel, where luxury is affordable.

The Lewis Grand is Angeles City's newest, most elegant hotel, positioned about half way between upper and lower Fields Avenue, so the nightlife is not far away but the noise, hustle and bustle is.

Flights directly into the Diosdado Macapagal International Airport on Clark mean that Angeles City is even more accessible to the business traveller, to whom time is money. With the new expressways converging around Angeles City, travellers can be in Subic Bay in a little over 30 minutes, while the trip to Manila takes about an hour; making Angeles the ideal stepping off point for Central Luzon.

Complementary amenities include a 'Welcome' drink on arrival. Wi-Fi is accessible throughout the hotel's rooms, suites and public areas.

Conference Facilities

For large gatherings for weddings, conferences, seminars and new product launches there's the Estrellita Ballroom, 2877 square feet of space that comfortably seats 250 people, banquet style.

Smaller, more intimate meetings can be held in one of our Boardrooms, which each have a capacity to seat 30 people, and with a combined area of 1378 square feet.

A complete range of modern audio visual equipment is available free of charge; and the Estrellita Ballroom is soundproof and equipped with data ports and internet access.

Special 'Enhancement Packages' are available to those guests who stay with us while attending a meeting or conference within the hotel.
